SPARKLING WHITE WINE

Glass / Bottle

Prosecco 125ml £7/£32

Where tradition meets bubbles, and every sip sparks joy. Italian fizz, done right.

Spumante Italiano £32

Gran Cuvée Millesimato

Sparkling wine is not just Prosecco, which has exploded like a bomb onto the global stage. It is something older, more deeply rooted in Italian culture. This particular bottle is not made with the classic Prosecco grapes but is crafted from Glera & Trebbiano. It represents a different, more mindful way of enjoying Italian bubbles—good, conscious effervescence. Cheers to a more thoughtful and refined Italian sparkling experience.

IL Prosecco £38

Valdobbiadene/Superiore/Millesimato

Winemaker: De Stefani is crafted exclusively from Glera grapes grown in the prestigious hills between Conegliano and Valdobbiadene. This is the heart of Prosecco—not just any Prosecco, but THE Prosecco. A true expression of the land, tradition, and excellence, it embodies the essence of what makes this region so special. It's not just a sparkling wine; it's a celebration of heritage, terroir, and the art of winemaking. This is Prosecco at its finest, a testament to the soul of Italian viticulture.

SPARKLING ROSE WINE

Glass / Bottle

Prosecco ROSÉ 125ml £7/£32

this wine blends Glera with Pinot Noir, creating a delightful rosé sparkling wine. It captivates with its minerality, vibrant freshness, and delicate aromas.

Les Italiennes Pink £35

These pink sparkling wines are a personal project by Marco, made from Lagarino grapes and crafted using the Italian method. You can find them across the UK exclusively at 208 Bruntsfield Place.

ITALIAN CHAMPAGNE

Alta Langa is one of the finest regions for Italian sparkling wines. Located in Piedmont, its proximity to France gives it a true and aristocratic style.

Abbi Cura – 27 Winery

From the heart of the Valle di Comino, Abbi Cura is a wine that carries the weight of time and the grace of care. Born from an ancient native grape once lost and now reborn, it embodies silent strength, resilience, and memory.

This is Marco's story — a tribute to the roots that work quietly beneath the surface, day after day, shaping the flavour of this moment.

The number 27, ever present, is not just a symbol, but a rhythm that connects past, present and future.

Abbi Cura is more than a wine. It is a reminder to take care — of ourselves, of others, and of the journey that brought us here.

A sip is not just taste — it is history, it is land, it is soul.

A true expression of Italian winemaking excellence.

Amarone Cru Fieramonte	£500
Winemaker: Allegrini
Grapes: Corvina, Rondinone & Molinara – Amarone Fieramonte is a premium red wine from the Veneto region, made with carefully selected Corvina, Rondinella, and Molinara grapes. It undergoes the traditional "appassimento" process, where the grapes are dried to concentrate their flavors. The result is a full-bodied wine with rich notes of dark fruit, spices, and a hint of chocolate, balanced by a smooth, lingering finish. It's an elegant, powerful Amarone with great aging potential.

Malbec	£38
winemaker: Terra Musa
Grape: 100% Malbec This 100% Malbec wine showcases rich, dark fruit flavors, velvety tannins, and a hint of spice. Perfectly balanced, it's a luxurious choice for those who appreciate depth and elegance in every sip.

Region / Toscana

Chianti Organic £35
Winemaker: Poggiotondo

Chianti Organic SUPERIORE £40
Winemaker: Poggiotondo

Chianti Superiore comes from a more restricted area within the broader Chianti zone, with stricter regulations on quality and grape selection. It delivers more structure and refinement compared to basic Chianti.

Chianti Classico £50
Winemaker: Felsina since 1716

Chianti Classico comes from the historical heart of the Chianti region, between Florence and Siena, characterized by its distinct terroir. Known for its signature black rooster seal, it has more complexity, with earthy and floral notes.

Chianti Classico Riserva £60
Winemaker: Poggio del Salici

Chianti Classico Riserva is a higher-tier version of Chianti Classico, aged longer, typically in oak barrels, and comes from the same region but with stricter aging requirements. It offers a more mature, nuanced profile, with intense flavors and a smoother finish.

SUPER-TUSCAN

Super Tuscan are premium wines from Tuscany, particularly from regions like Bolgheri, Montalcino, and the Chianti Classico area. These wines often blend international varieties such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Syrah with the native Sangiovese grape. They are known for their bold flavors, rich textures, and high quality, offering a modern approach to Tuscan winemaking with a focus on craftsmanship and the unique terroirs of Tuscany.

Biondi Santi

The Soul of Brunello di Montalcino

Biondi Santi is not just a winery; it is the birthplace of Brunello di Montalcino and a symbol of Italian winemaking excellence. Founded in the late 19th century by Ferruccio Biondi Santi, this historic estate pioneered the production of Brunello, crafting a wine that would become a global benchmark for elegance and longevity.

What sets Biondi Santi apart is its unwavering commitment to tradition, quality, and terroir. The estate's vineyards, located in the heart of Montalcino, are home to some of the oldest Sangiovese vines in the world, including the legendary "Greppo" vineyard. These vines, combined with meticulous winemaking and aging processes, produce wines of extraordinary depth, complexity, and aging potential.

A bottle of Biondi Santi is more than just wine—it's a piece of history, a testament to centuries of passion and expertise. Their Brunellos are celebrated for their refined structure, vibrant acidity, and ability to evolve beautifully over decades. Investing in Biondi Santi means owning a legacy, a wine that tells the story of Montalcino and embodies the pinnacle of Italian craftsmanship. This is why their wines command such reverence—and why they are worth every penny.
